VOL. VIII NO. 266

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1902.

PRICE 5 CENTS

A MUDLARKS' DAY.

The steady downpour of rain all day yesterday played havoc with the attendance at Lakeside, one of the smallest crowds that ever went to the track being present. The going was sloppy and favored mudlarks. The card was made up of a poor class of horses and the sport, under the bad weather conditions, was consequently tame.

The most important race of the day was the fifth, a dash of one mile for three-year-olds. Marcos was made an even money favorite and rewarded the confidence placed in him by his many backers by winning easily. First Has Gift and then O'Hagen took up the running, the latter leading by two lengths just before turning for home, but when well straightened for the wire, he gave way to Marcos, which easily passed into the lead, winning by two and a half lengths from Worthington, which beat Chickadee a head for second place. Worthington made a quick move up just before turning for home, but tired perceptibly in the last eighth struggle and had all he could do to get second place from Chickadee. The latter finished strongly and ran a good race. O'Hagen showed well for six furlongs, but fell away rapidly in the final quarter. Has Gift showed a sharp turn of speed for five and a furlongs and bears watching.

The opening race of the day, a dash of five furlongs for maiden two-year-old colts and geldings, proved to be an easy thing for Jove, the second choice in the betting. Off well, he at once shot to the front and almost spreadeagled the field, winning by four lengths from Angelo, which beat Marco one for second place. Angelo was under a vigorous ride all through the last eighth, outstaying Marco for second place. He probably runs to his best form on a fast track. San Sargassa showed much improvement and bears watching. John Powers was all entangled at the start and had no chance by the time he had gotten into his stride.

False Lead was much the best in the second race, a dash of one and a quarter miles for three-year-olds and upwards. Pirate's Queen, showing much speed, led by a good margin until just after turning for home, where False Lead easily passed her, winning by two lengths. Pirate's Queen beating Swordsman two and one-half for second place. A mile and a quarter appears to be a little farther than Pirate's Queen cares to go. Swordsman tired palpably when the pinch came. He appears to run to his best form in deep, holding mud. The race was strictly a three-horse affair throughout.

Fairbury was held at 2 to 5 in the betting in the third race, a dash of six furlongs for three-year-olds and upward, and he won as the odds indicated. Immediately at the rise of the barrier he shot to the front and easily maintained command throughout, winning by three lengths from Tom Kingsley, which beat Inspector Shea a half length for second place. Tom Kingsley was under a hard drive all through the last eighth. Inspector Shea began slowly, but moved up fast when entering the last quarter and finished with a rush. Eva's Darling showed well for four and a half furlongs, but fell away beaten when the pinch came. Miss Shanley, as usual, showed speed, but maintained it for five furlongs only.

Irving Mayor, well handled by Waldo, took the fourth race, a dash of one and one-quarter miles for three-year-olds and upward, in handy fashion. Erne took command after Great Star had led on sunderance for the first half, and held the lead until the first six furlongs had been run, where he was joined by Irving Mayor. They ran in close company to the final eighth, where Irving Mayor gradually drew away, winning easily by two lengths. Erne tired so fast in the final furlong that Lady Chorister had no trouble in beating him out two lengths for second place. Lady Chorister ran a good race, finishing with a rush next to the inside rail. Vincitor finished strongly and is nearly due to win. Sarilla ran a dull race and is capable of a much better showing.

The last race of the day, a dash of one mile for three-year-olds, was taken easily by Lou Woods. Although the field was unwieldy Dwyer got the horses off to a good start, The Rabbit showing in front for the first half mile. Turning for home Amirante took command, but in the last eighth was joined by Lou Woods, Prue and Filiform. Lou Woods easily drew away after a short stretch struggle, winning by three lengths from Prue which beat Filiform a head for second place. Prue and Filiform fought it out sharply for second position all through the last sixteenth. Amirante tired fast when the pinch came, but showed improvement and is due to win, especially over a heavy track.

EASTERN RACING AFFAIRS.

Says the New York Sun of Sunday concerning matters that interest the army of turf followers at New York:

"The stewards of the Aqueduct meeting—W. S. Vosburgh, Frank T. Clarke and C. H. Pettingill—after a long consultation yesterday afternoon decided to rescind the ruling of Thomas B. Reilly, president of the Queens County Jockey Club, who ordered Secretary Rehberger on Friday to refuse the entries of A. L. Aste for the balance of the meeting as a result of the in-and-out running of the two-year-old gelding Plater. When Reilly took the matter into his own hands it created a general surprise among turfmen, for the reason that there was no provision in the rules of racing for any such action except at the instance of the stewards. According to the rules the stewards are the sole judges of the racing at the tracks over which they preside, so that Reilly's move established a precedent which created no end of discussion when the horsemen gathered yesterday at the track. It was the general opinion that Reilly had acted hastily and that the stewards in justice to themselves, and as a matter of discipline, would be compelled to assert themselves whether or not there was anything in the charge that Aste's horse had not been run in accordance with the rules of fair play.

"The stewards first had Reilly before them and it is understood that he explained his action with the statement that he believed, as the principal owner of the Aqueduct track, that he had the right to refuse the entries of any owner who might be objectionable to him. It is also stated that Reilly admitted ignorance of the rules and that he was perfectly willing to abide by any decision at which the stewards might arrive. The stewards then called Aste before them and the bootblack king proceeded to explain the reason why Plater, a favorite in the Creedmore Stakes on Wednesday, was beaten off on a muddy track, while in the Lynbrook Handicap on Friday on a fast track and with odds of 6 to 1 against him, he made his field look like a lot of cart horses. The layers' sheets were examined and Aste's statement that he bet $300 straight on Plater on Wednesday and $150 straight and $150 to show on Friday was confirmed. After a further investigation the stewards ordered Secretary Rehberger to accept Aste's entries for the rest of the meeting and the incident was closed. President Reilly left the track immediately.

"The prices quoted against the six winners at Aqueduct yesterday caused those who are fond of pipe dreams to get out their pencils and figure up what a ten-dollar parley would have won on the day. According to the figures of one man a ten-dollar bill parleyed through the card would have won about $99,000,000. Beginning with Malden in the first race at 50 to 1, a ten-dollar bettor would have gone to Royal Summons in the second race $510 at 10 to 1. Then he would have wagered $5,610 on Annie Lauretta at 25 to 1, netting him $135,860; placing this upon St. Finnan in the fourth race at 12 to 1, he would have been able to bet $1,766,180 on Kittaning in the fifth race at 6 to 1. Then with $12,363,360 he would have swamped the betting ring and in fact every poolroom in the United States and some of the savings banks with a bet on Articulate at 7 to 1, which would have rounded up for him $98,906,080, after which the pipe would have gone out.

"A. Simons got into the bidding-up game yesterday when Kittaning, owned by F. M. Dick, won the fifth race. The Halma colt was entered to be sold for $800 and Simons ran the price up to $2,000 when the owner retained him with an extra $5. Mr. Dick's trainer then turned around and claimed Sweet Alice, who ran second, for $2,720. Simons also claimed Maltster, owned by Winnie O'Connor's father, out of the third race for $1,190.

"Starter Cassidy continued to hand out discipline at the post yesterday. For misconduct in the second race he suspended Winnie O'Connor and Conley for the rest of the meeting. O'Connor will, therefore, not be seen again on a local track for some time to come, as he will go to France in the spring to ride for Baron Rothschild during the next two years.

"W. L. Oliver yesterday purchased from W. A. Engeman two five-year-olds that have never raced. They are Meteorite, by Egmont—Brambler mare, and Home Signal, by Egmont—Speedwell. They will be used as hunters this winter and will then be put over the jumps in the spring.

"Another good thing from the Lotos Stable went wrong in the second race. Knight of Gold was the tip circulated in the clubhouse and the Golden Garter colt went to the post full of life. He broke through the barrier twice and then burned up the money by running fifth. A killing was effected with the Pepper Stable's Royal Summons in this event. The Kantaka colt was hammered down from 12 to 1 to four, most of the money, it is said, coming from J. G. Lyman, who is a half owner of the stable and his friends. Mr. Featherstone also had a heavy commission on his Lamplighter colt Uranium, which ran second to Royal Summons.

"M. Clancy has nothing but money these days. He had $2 on May J., at 200 to 1, on Thursday, and yesterday, when St. Finnan carried his colors to the front in the Babylon Handicap, Mike yelled himself hoarse because of the fact that he had a swell bet on the gelding at 12 to 1.

"Articulate's victory in the last race was regarded by some as a reversal of form. On Friday, with 126 pounds in the last race, at a mile and seventy yards, he finished fifth, behind Oom Paul, Belle's Comoner, Huntress and Cameron. In yesterday's race he had speed to burn and spreadeagled his field. Bob Smith was one of those who cashed on him."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. H. C., Detroit. Unmasked cut no figure in the case except as to the measure in which he affected the odds. As he was a strong favorite and The Regent a strong second choice, it is probable no show odds would have been on offer against the latter had Unmasked not started. Subject to these considerations your parolee was a winner.

Inquirer, Chicago. Mile records at Washington Park, Harlem and Hawthorne are as follows: Washington Park, 1:38, made by Orimar July 21, 1900; Harlem, 1:38½, made by Rose Tree September 8, 1902; Hawthorne, 1:38½, made by Alcedo August 4, 1900.

J. C. B., Chicago. The parolee wins in Agnes Mack and is a draw as to Fort Wayne. There being no show money against the latter, his position at the finish was of no consequence so far as the show bet was concerned.

A. F. O., Memphis. We have no information on the subject you inquire about, but presume odds at the track would be highest.

C. B. C., Chicago. As there was no show betting on Fort Wayne or Fairbury, your wager was a draw as to them and won on Fake.

Rosenthal, St. Louis. It was a confusion of names in transmitting entries. The name in the chart was correct.

Sterling, Chicago. The wager on Lady Kent was a winner but at no greater odds than 8 to 1.

STAKES FOR SHEEP-HEAD BAY.

The premier among eastern racing organizations, the Coney Island Jockey Club, has announced a list of those opulent stakes which have served to make it famous and rank among the greatest prizes of the American turf. They are nine in number and close for entries Monday, November 17, the list being as follows:

For June meeting, 1903:
The Foam, two-year-olds, $2,500 added; 5-8 mile.
The Surf, two-year-olds, $2,500 added; 5 1-2 furlongs.

For June meeting, 1904:
The Tidal, three-year-olds, value $20,000; 1 1-4 miles.

The Mermaid, three-year-old fillies, $2,500 added; 1 1-8 miles.

The Lawrence Realization, three-year-olds, $10,000 added; 1 5-8 miles.

For Autumn meeting, 1904:
The Great Filly Stakes, two-year-old fillies, $5,000 added; 3-4 mile.

The Century, three-year-olds and upward, value $20,000; 1 1-2 miles.

Autumn meeting, 1904 and after:
The Annual Champion, three-year-olds and upward, value $2,000; 2 1-4 miles.

For June meeting, 1905:
The Lawrence Realization, three-year-olds, $10,000 added; 1 5-8 miles.

These splendid prizes of the turf appeal to the desire of all owners year by year, as well they may. Their conditions are liberal and their winning spells fortune. The popularity of the Coney Island Jockey Club is deservedly unbounded. Its present offering should be met with generous entry lists. DAILY RACING FORM will furnish entry blanks to all owners who may apply for them.

STAKES FOR SARATOGA.

Very great stakes of the future are those now offered by the Saratoga Association and which close for entries next Monday, November 10. They form a part of the comprehensive plan designed by Mr. Whitney and his associates when they determined to place Saratoga foremost among the racing points of the country. The stakes now offered are the $15,000 Spinaway of 1904, for then two-year-old fillies, the $40,000 Hopeful of 1905, for then two-year-olds and the mammoth $50,000 Great Republic of 1905, for then three-year-olds and upward. The present offering for entries concerns breeders closely because nearly all youngsters eligible to these very rich stakes are now in their possession with the certainty that their sales ring value will be greatly enhanced if they are engaged in these very rich stakes. Their terms appear elsewhere in this issue and DAILY RACING FORM earnestly commends them to the consideration of breeders and owners in general. They should receive a measure of patronage fully equal to that of last year when they were first offered.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Gold Heels, the winner of this year's Suburban and Brighton Handicaps and which was purchased by E. J. Arnold & Co. for breeding purposes, has sufficiently recovered from the effects of having his fore legs fired and will leave Dr. McKillip's place on Wabash ave. today for Greenville, Ill., where the breeding establishment of Mr. Arnold is located. Although the horse's legs are apparently as sound as ever, it was announced that he would never again face the starter, but would be kept at the head of the breeding farm.

P. J. Tomlinson arrived yesterday from Nashville, Tenn., where he has been in attendance at the dispersal sale of the Belle Meade stock farm. He purchased while there six weanlings and one brood mare, which were shipped to the breeding farm of E. J. Arnold & Co.

Curtis & Derrham announced their intention yesterday of sending their horses to New Orleans Sunday. This is to give the horses a chance to get acclimated in time for the opening of the Crescent City meeting.

Winner—Br. f, by Ingoldsby—Goldie Cad (trained by J. Rodgap).
Went to post at 3:01. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Golden Glitter had to go around her field to get up, came wide into the homestretch and finishing strongly wore Rag Tag down in the final furlong and got up in the last stride. Mathews rode a bungling finish on Rag Tag, was overconfident and threw the race away. Santa Teresa saved ground at the home turn and finished strongly. Star of the West was off tangled up and was in a pocket to the far turn where she was cut off and knocked out of it. This one is sure to win when a good rider is substituted in place of Snyder. Our Jessie quit in the stretch.

Winner—B. c, by Ornament—Blanche II. (trained by C. Hughes).
Went to post at 3:57. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Orpheum ran well and finished gamely and was under a hard drive all of the last furlong to stall off Mr. Farnum. The latter was coming strongly at the end and was overhauling the winner at every stride. Music Man displayed much early speed, but was much used in setting the early pace and tired. Tancred was cut off soon after the start. D'Arcy ran well to the stretch.

Tiburon did his best throughout under a weak ride. Alee came again at the end and would have been second in another stride. It was too dark to distinguish the colors of the others except at the finish.

Winner—B. c, by Logic—The Slashes (trained by H. McCoulsky).
Went to post at 2:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good for all except John Powers. Won easily; second handily. Jove was easily the best, showed much speed and simply played with the field. Angelo was under a strong drive all through the last eighth, outstaying Marco. The latter tired palpably when the pinch came. San Sargassa showed improvement and bears watching. The others were never serious contenders.

Winner—B. c. by Badge—Mocking Bird (trained by W. L. Oliver).
Went to post at 2:15. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Lord Badge, skilfully handled, gradually moved up in the last half and flashed through next to the rail with a great burst of speed. St. Finnan was always prominent and closed up strongly in the last quarter. Sadducee sustained his speed unexpectedly well and must be in good form again. Sevoy, nearly left, quickly ran through the field and was excessively used on the stretch turn where he went around everything. He tired somewhat at the end but should have been easily third. Old Hutch, away poorly, closed a big gap and finished with a rush. Cameron, sore, and lacking his usual speed, was always outrun. Bonnibert, shut off at the start, made up much ground. Unmasked ran a dull race.

Winner—Br. f. by Potomac—Garoda (trained by W. Durker).
Went to post at 2:40. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second driving. Ray forced the pace throughout and decisively outpaced and outstayed the field. Courtenay came away from the others as if they were anchored, but could not quite get up. Rossfame is improving, held on well after a hard, early effort and outstayed Oclawaha. The latter tired badly in the last sixteenth. Bar Le Duc is in poor form. Patronymic, nearly left, closed a tremendous gap. Lady Radnor received a bad start and was improving her position in the last quarter.

Winner—B. c. by Troubadour—Felipa (trained by J. J. McLaughlin).
Went to post at 3:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. W. R. Condon easily showed the most speed and gamely stood off Lyman Hay's strong bid at the end. The latter was poorly ridden and swerving when a furlong out, losing ground. Right and True finished with a rush at the end and is steadily improving. Athlana failed to stay. Nevermore, outrun early, worked a rough journey and when he got clear sailing made a good stretch run, but is strictly a mudlark. Examiner was closing up well throughout. Courtmaid quit badly in the last quarter.

Winner—Ch. h. by Knight of Ellerslie—Emma Mac (trained by P. S. Roberts).
Went to post at 3:45. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Rough Rider secured a lucky start, held a good position throughout and drew to the front in the stretch, winning well in hand. Satire, away badly, closed a big gap and was probably best. Snark, nearly left, rushed through next to the rail, gained fifteen lengths in the first half, held on remarkably well and is an improved horse. Major Mansir rated throughout and is evidently a four-miler. True Blue got away running and tired and quit in the last furlong. Waterton is promising. Nearly left, he closed an immense gap. Dr. Riddle and Dr. Barlow broke down.
Corrected weights—Waterton, 110.

Star and Garter was going strongly in the last sixteenth. Lulu Marr was probably short. Bridesmaid II. had no chance at the start.

Winner—B. or br. c. by Golden Garter or Bassettlaw—Madrid (trained by F. Brown).
Went to post at 4:40. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Mackay Dwyer waited to the stretch before making his move and coming along in true race-horse style gamely stood off Six Shooter's tremendous rush at the end. The latter had trailed apparently, outrun early and under pressure, but ran a great race and was best. Hunter Raine finished fast and ran a remarkable last furlong. Gimcrack, next to the rail and apparently hampered, closed up with clear sailing from the half and was weakly handled. Incubator displayed brilliant speed for seven furlongs after which he tired and was evidently short. Circus was a good horse, but mismanaged throughout. Wax Candle failed to stay and was not keyed up for such a long race.

ST. LOUIS TURF GOSSIP.

Local turfmen and bookmakers are preparing to go to the winter tracks at San Francisco and New Orleans.

W. W. Rogers will take Fitzkanet, Colonial Girl, and the other good ones in his stable to California. Phil Bollinger and George Ehrlich, the bookmakers, will do business at New Orleans. Virginia Carroll will go to California. Barney Schreiber has shipped his horses out there and will follow about November 15. The season has been one of Mr. Schreiber's banner years, both on the track and with his bookmaking operations.

Charley Cella, who will go to New Orleans, quit the local season a bit loser. Louis Cella about broke even on the year. Phil Bollinger had a successful season, especially in the last two months. Frank Bayne goes to California with Barney Schreiber. Bayne won a handsome sum for Mr. Schreiber at the Fair Grounds, Delmar and Kinloch.

Bayne was well known as a jockey some ten years ago and rode at the East Side tracks. He makes a clever book especially in the place and show line. As an ex-jockey he knows just how big the place and show percentage is against the bettor. For the one horse that is badly ridden to win, ten are badly ridden to show. Many horses are eased up when their riders see that they cannot win. These horses played to run second and third finish out of the money. Barney Schreiber, who got his start off a show book, says that there is no money in it any more.

Herman Hoffman will go to California. Mr. Hoffman is the steadiest and most consistent bookmaker in the west. He is always making a book that is true to form and never looks for the proverbial "ace" in the hole. He always makes money, which proves that honesty is the best policy.

E. J. Arnold & Co. will have a big stable at New Orleans, and a bigger and better one at San Francisco. They will operate a book at each track and a poolroom at Hot Springs. W. W. Finn will manage the New Orleans string, while Charley Ross, who
